Other sources of income including fund raising? We raise approximately £3000 annually through fund raising and other discretionary grants

How do you intend to maintain the financial viability of your organisation? We are actively recruiting for new starters and promoting the safe and nurturing environment of the Preschool with its unique attributes of a purpose built premises and large outdoor space combined with our caring and experienced staff. This is a central tenant to our proposition to potential parents. We are supported in this by proactive parents being encouraged to our advertising and promotion through social media and other channels as well as continuing to word of mouth recommendations and through the enthusiasm of the volunteer management committee.
